A Marvelous

JOSEPH L. MALONE
English Head Master

Today, Boston Latin and Boston English meet in their seventy-sixth football game. Over the years these games have been close, hard fought, and filled with the glamor of the oldest schoolboy football rivalry in the country. The records show that the teams have been evenly matched. Each school has been victorious in thirty-one contests, and there have been thirteen ties. We shall not attempt to forecast the outcome of today's game.

We do know, however, that each team will play cleanly, to win if possible, to do its best in any event.

Indeed, to give of one's best is traditional with the boys of B.L.S. and E.H.S. These boys have had the priceless opportunity to mature under the guidance of interested, capable masters during the crucial years that they spent in high school. Crucial years, for it is here that a boy heads toward manhood. What will he do in high school — will he acquire the information and zeal necessary to continue his pursuit of higher learning? Will he prepare to step into the world of business? Will he already be a person aware of community responsibility?

Tradition

Students at B.L.S. and E.H.S. are forging the answers to these questions. Their headmasters and teachers, men devoted to the education and direction of their charge, are showing them the way.

A special word should be said for the two coaches, Edward Lambert of Latin and William Stewart of English. These men have been patient teachers and have always helped their boys to develop as individuals as well as to become good football players.

The boys who take the field this morning have a long history of fine play and real sportsmanship to uphold. We know that they will strive to live up to the spirit of the past which they inherit.

On this Thanksgiving Day with our attention directed at the big game, let us stop and ask God to preserve the peace of the world as we thank Him for His bounty. May such games as this one continue to be our major focus of attention on all our Thanksgivings to come.

Glancing at the Record

SIXTY YEARS AGO

16th Game of the Series

1902 . . . South End Grounds . . . BLS 25 — EHS 0 . . . for the third time in succession BLS won the City Championship . . . 1500 attended . . . A reporter said: "The winners showed greater tact in their defensive work than has been exhibited this season." . . . Tact? . . . Contest started with the field almost entirely enveloped in a cloud of fog . . . Freedman scored first TD for FIVE points . . . All points-after were missed . . . Scoring for the Purple: Freedman 2, McCusker 2, and Hanley . . . Capt. Sullivan (E) was "very conspicuous, especially on defense" . . . Longest runs by McCusker, each of 60 yards . . . Loughlin brothers were rival quarterbacks and "frequently came together with honors even" . . . BLS was scored on but once during the entire season . . . Stars for the Purple: Benshimol, Witherbee, Littlefield, O'Donnell, Loughlin, Freedman, McCusker, Hanley . . . Stars for the Blue: Clapp, Woodberry, Sullivan . . . Signs of the times: The All-Scholastic Team for '02 had Sullivan (E) and Witherbee, O'Donnell, Loughlin, Freedman and Hanley of BLS.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

26th Game of the Series

November 28, 1912—Fenway Park . . . BLS 7 — EHS 6 . . . Clear day, 38° at start, but mercury dropped to 26° and light snow during second half. This was the fourth year of Fred J. O'Brien's coaching and the first year in four that either team crossed the goal line. Two of the three previous games were scoreless ties and the other one was BLS 9, EHS 0, all scoring being three goals from the field by "Mal" Logan in 1910. This 7 to 6 win put Latin into the series lead, 11 to 10 . . . Both teams scored in the first period . . . "Hack" Casey blocked one of Billy Boles' punts on the 20-yard line and Bradley fell on the ball. Then Shelburne scored the T.D. . . . The point after was missed . . . On the following kick-off Max Gersumky, Capt. Tom Craven, and Frank McCarthy each made long gains for three successive first downs. With the ball on the five-yard line, Boles threw a forward pass to McCarthy for the score, and then kicked the goal after. Each team had several chances to score in the remaining periods but were unable to do so and a punting duel ensued. The teams lined up as follows

B. L. S.

Jack Saladine, Walter Hardy, LE; Wallie Webber, LT; Louis Berman, Maurice Dullea, LG; Louis Walsh, C; Tom Tarrant, Leo Cusick, RG; Joe Green, Ernie O'Callaghan, RT; Billy Besarick, RE; William J. Boles, QB; Max Gersumky, LH Capt. Tom Craven, RH; Frank McCarthy, FB.

E. H. S.

Pendleton, RE; Bradley, RT; "Pot" Algar, RG; Wright, Fay, C; Hack Casey, LG; Bob Ignico, LT; George Hillman, LE; Jackie Maloney, QB; Capt. Dave Maginnis, RH; Cy Meade, LH; John Shelburne, Ed Wingersky, FB.

Referee, T. Murphy; Umpire, Hapgood; Linesman, Bill Meanix.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO 51st Game of the Series

1937 . . . Braves Field . . . A scoreless tie . . . 20,000 saw the seventh scoreless tie in the series . . . NEWS: a beautiful day . . . Five times the Purple threatened and five times the wearers of the Blue turned them back . . . Latin messed up its chances . . . 130 pound Dempsey (L) often required three English players to bring him down . . . Both teams made several fine plays . . . but all for Nought and Nought . . . Blue stars: Halloran, O'Brien, Reale, Gillis, and Capt. Cuddy . . . Purple stars: Martin, Crowley, Radley, Hoar, Lambert, Walsh.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

56th Game of the Series

1942 . . . EHS wins 19-0 and wins City Title as well . . . After a slow first half (Gill scored for the Blue) the 13,000 fans were delighted as they shivered and shook trying to identify the two players scoring the Blue second half TD's . . . The players were mud-covered after two plays . . . Gill, Kasabian, and Gilbert scored for the winners . . . Kasabian's 65-yard run for a touchdown was a thing of beauty . . . Gould, Noonan, and Wally Harwood stood out for the Purple . . . The mud on the field was at least three inches thick . . . It was difficult to tell which team had the ball . . . McMahon (E) and Rossi (E) did fine work in the EHS line . . . Year before, same score, but the Purple won then . . . The final touchdown came as Kasabian, about to be tackled after an eight-yard gain, lateralled to Gilbert who ran 22 yards more to score.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

61st Game of the Series

1947 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . EHS 26 — BLS 13 . . . "Underdog Latin had the game tucked away in its hip pocket . . . then, like a spendthrift on a spree, tossed away the advantage" . . . The Blue picked up the chips and the championship of the Boston Conference . . . 24,300 customers . . . The story of the game — Latin marched 73 yards . . . Markoff plunged for score . . . Mabry kicked extra point . . . Touched punt by the Purple and four plays later Dell Orfano (E) had the equalizer . . . A "phantom back" play and the Blue had the ball on the Latin two . . . Dell Orfano scored . . . Karys (E) scored . . . then with all the Blue backs taking part, English marched to a TD and Karys scored again . . . A 57-yard run by Markoff (L) gave the Purple its second score . . . A desperation pass by the Purple—Sullivan to Dempsey—went from midfield to the Blue nine, but the game was tucked away . . . Stars for EHS: any backfield playing for Blue, plus Eisenstadt, Savino and Shawlis . . . For the Purple: Markoff, Mabry, Barton, Barbarisi.

TEN YEARS AGO

66th Game of the Series

1952 . . . BLS 30 — EHS 12 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . Game TV-ed, kept attendance down to 14,000 . . . "despite its free-wheeling might Latin had to cash in in the last period of this hat-hoister to win" . . . Story of the game is in the scoring: Arena (L) 80 yards with opening kick-off for TD . . . Hadge and Burke (E) collaborated for TD . . . Carey (E) to Burke with a 39-yard pass, then Burke scored on a pitchout . . . At half-time: EHS 12 — BLS 6 . . . Then Connolly (L) 55 yards to equalize . . . then Connolly 22 yards . . . then Dailey (L) intercepted Carey's pass for 24 point total . . . then Smith (L) recovered fumble on EHS six and Capt. Kannegieser went over for the last TD . . . Not one point after touchdown was kicked after the seven TD's . . . "Latin ate up the ground in large gobs, but fumble-itis took over, or penalties prevented scores" . . . Example: Fitzgerald took hand-off on a punt and went 80 yards only to have the officials call clipping on the Purple back on the 48 . . . Another: Hasiotis to Dickey pass for 40 yards, then on the next line play — fumble . . . Stars for the Blue: Hadge, Burke, Carey and Kinneally. Stars for the Purple: Capt. Kannegieser and the whole team — when not fumbling.

FIVE YEARS AGO

71st Game of the Series

November 28, 1957 . . . EHS 26 — BLS 20 . . . At Harvard Stadium . . . Cloudy and windy at start, but sunny for second half, 55 degree temperature . . . BLS started off with a bang, scoring twice and leading 13 to 0 at the end of seven minutes . . . Brenci, on a double reverse, ran 28 yards for a T.D. . . . Bart Blanchard, aided by a terrific block by Art Tacelli, ran 58 yards down the left side for the longest run of the game . . . After that, Randy Mullins took over for EHS . . . He surprised all in second period in setting up a score, by passing to Kennedy on the 12 — then again to the 2 . . . Then, with BLS over-shifted to stop Randy, Sullivan went through and McGaffigan kicked the point . . . Within three minutes Monaco grabbed a BLS fumble on the 27 . . . Two plays and Randy outraced the secondary for his first T.D., and McGaffigan again kicked the point. Score now EHS 14, BLS 13 . . . In the third period Mullins had to go three times to get his second touchdown . . . His first jaunt of 30 yards was nullified by an offside. His second, on a Statue of Liberty play for 40 yards, was called back for a clip. Finally, he ran around the left end unimpeded . . . Early in the last period he caught a pass from Serra on the 7 and hotfooted home . . . BLS was not finished . . . A pass from Bilodeau to Phil Murray in the end zone was recalled for an offside. On the next try the play worked and Bilodeau kicked the point . . . With about two minutes to go, EHS got the ball. Mullins and Serra concentrated on line bucks to kill the clock.

LAST YEAR

75th Game of the Series

November 23, 1961 . . . EHS 39 — BLS 0 . . . At Harvard Stadium. Temperature 41° to 26°. Attendance over 20,000. After four days of rain, although it had ceased at game time, the field was muddy. The game was hard fought, but difficult to believe according to the lopsided score. English set a new record by scoring 39 points in a game. The former record was 38 points, scored by Latin in 1888 at Franklin Park. EHS led 6 to 0 at the end of the first period on a pass interception by Co-Capt. Bob Cofield, who carried the ball up the sideline for 88 yards. Early in the second period he again intercepted a Latin pass and ran 39 yards for the score and added two points by a rush conversion. Cofield had missed the first half of the season on account of injuries but the rests which he was given every few minutes by being replaced evidently paid off. Just before the half ended Layne ran over 40 yards for a T.D. EHS led 14 to 0 at the half. Layne made his second T.D. halfway through the third period by going through left tackle from the one-yard line. In the last period speedy Preston Johnson intercepted a Latin pass and romped 65 yards for a T.D. In the same period Tom Meany, intending to punt, received a high pass from center and decided to run behind beautiful blockers, and trotted about 60 yards for the score. Prifty kicked the point-after. The closest Latin came to scoring was at the 16-yard marker, which was the line of scrimmage in the first period when Cofield intercepted which resulted in the first touchdown. Co-Capt. Mike Adessa and the Wilsons excelled in the line for E. H. S. while Co-Capt. Charles Gandy, Ed Bailey, Paul Clifford, and George Broks shone for Latin in a losing cause.
